Jane,
Don't this senior picnic
exciting! Oh well - I'll sure miss you and the other kids next year. K up those jerks (people who aren't going to Purdue) laughing down (up???) at Beloit! Don't think I'll ever forget the Wash. trip when we had to go down to Georgia's tomb and we darn near missed the bus. Puff.
I'm still out of breath!

I'm sure glad I got to know you better this year - I wish we could have known each other earlier though - next year I probably won't even see you.
Well - here's to the best of luck in the future Jane Alice!

Hail H.

DEDICATION

They have been our inspiration, our guiding hand, our counsellors in time of need, and our ever-present companions in solitude.

Treasurer of discipline, Secretary of learning, Vice-President of repetition, and President of knowledge are but a few of their unclaimed honors.

With these thoughts in mind, the Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1957 Pinnacle to our PAR-ENTS, who have greatly helped to sculpture our lives for the world to see.

Students, students, and more students

Have passed along these quiet halls

Reflecting on the latest dance,

Reading bulletins on the walls.

Teachers, teachers, and more teachers

Have helped many a teen to see

Advantages in studying

Toward what they someday may be.

The lunch room lines and candy stands

Have been a familiar sight

As have the many club meetings,

And the games our teams proudly fight.

Convoys and student productions
Have played an important part, too,

For the growth of Glenbard High School
It is credited to all of you!

Foreword

Without crowding nor cubicle is the space-making mind
Of truth seekers; boundless it is in ordered
Eloquence and generous as the miracle of loaves.
This mind is Viking to dare the unknown
Language of tomorrow discovering all
Its alphabet and syntax. These seekers hear
The wishing bells in the spires of windswept
Stars and feel a sacred humbleness
As they peer far out toward the afterglow,
Even sunrises beyond the evening premises
Of clouds. Bronzing foreheads with infinite
Weather, they plough the empyrian furrows
Of the starry moors. Traveling the length
Of magic passage, they venture far
Beyond the walls and landmarks of the spheres
And bridge the unbridgable to unspace the fossils
Of the distant one-of-these-days. The space-making
Mind runs the long sky, where the weather cock
Points wide and vast, with never a fear
To cross and ever, ever farther
Beyond the blue of amaranth and elbow room.

SENIOR CLASS

CLASS OFFICERS: President, John Inglis; Vice-president, Janet Malm; Secretary, Romaine Troost.

A metamorphosis has taken place at Glenbard. The freshmen of 1953 can scarcely be recognized as the seniors of 1957. Old ideas and fads have given way and then have completely changed as the class of '57 stumbled down "Experience Road."

Guided by their advisors and their own desire, they have kept sight of the main goal, knowledge. In Clubs, activities, studies, and sports they have at last arrived at graduation, the end of an enjoyable story.

Their story is filled with painful memories though not unpleasant ones. They will remember their mistakes as freshmen, ambitions as sophomores, responsibilities as juniors, and omnipotence as seniors.

These years are significant to seniors. Never again will these same 367 people gather for so long under the same conditions.

HONOR STUDENTS P. Hurlbut, L. Schrotberger, K. Englund, R. Kellogg.

ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

Ooo-la-la, zee L'Alliance Francaise, she ees magnifique, non?

Organized in the early 1930's, the L'Alliance Francaise now boasts many members. In order to allow Glenbardians to become more familiar with France, its people, and its civilization, the 1956-57 L'Alliance Francaise planned a variety of interesting programs. In October Miss Axt related her experiences as a student in France and told of her European travels; in January, Miss Snow showed her slides of France. At Christmas and again at Valentine's Day, the club sponsored parties.

Officers of this year's L'Alliance Francaise were president, Jane Dixon; vice-president, Carol Vogel; secretary-treasurer, Carol Baumann; and program chairman, Claudia Arnold. Miss Snow, faculty sponsor, ably assisted the group.

Standing: J. Dixon, C. Vogel, C. Arnold. Sitting: C. Baumann.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

"Are there people on Mars?" The Glenbard students best qualified to give the world this enlightening news are members of Glenbard's "up and coming" Astronomy Club. Organized in 1955 by a group of interested astrologists, the club has continually endeavored to promote enthusiasm in astronomy among Glenbard's students and faculty. During September and October, Glenbard's planet peerers engaged several evenings in observing the position and magnitude of the stars. The months of November, December, January, and February found the star-gazers diligently seeking parts and materials for the construction of a new telescope. Under the leadership of Mr. Galbreath, the officers of this year's Astronomy Club were Dave Dutton, president; Jim Thomas, vice-president; and Carolyn Gohr, secretary-treasurer.

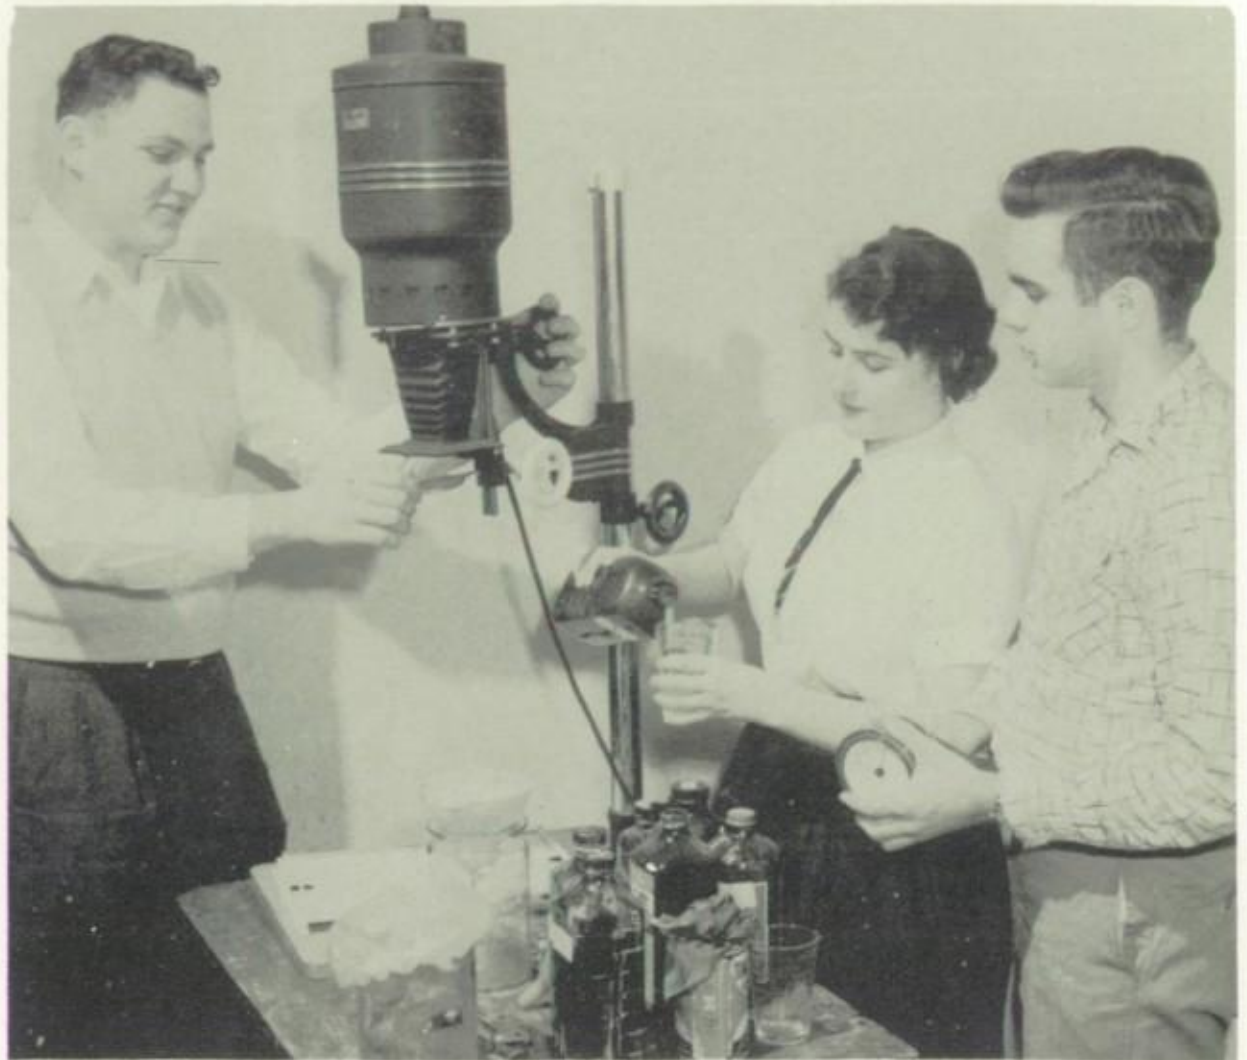

D. Dutton, C. Gohr, J. Thomas.

CAMERA CLUB

The purpose of this club is to stimulate interest in photography. In spite of the fact that Camera Club is one of the youngest clubs at Glenbard, it is one of the most active. Members often took field trips with the intention to take pictures for showing at other meetings. In January, the club sponsored a salon exhibit of prize-winning prints from the annual Cartman-Kodak high school photo contest.

This year's chief "sharp shooter" was Bob Wendorff. The other shutterbugs were vice-president, Bob Nagley and secretary-treasurer, Alta Cools. Mr. Holloway, an experienced photographer, served as the advisor.

B. Wendorff, Alta Cools, Bob Nagley.

CIVIL AIR PATROL

Since the organization of the Civil Air Patrol in 1941, more than fifty-thousand people have bettered their aviation education through its varied and diversified courses in aviation. Such courses were meteorology, radio, theory of flight, atomic defense, jet and rocket engines, close order drill, aerial navigation, and search and rescue techniques. The C. A. P. has units and squadrons in all of the forty-eight states, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and other U. S. territories.

The Du Page Squadron Cadets are under the direction of Senior Commanding Officer Major E. F. Doll CAP. The Senior training officers are: Capt. G. Wall, 1/Lt. H. W. Kneaskern, and S/Sgt. G. DeHesus. Cadet officers are: CCO Capt. D. S. Moore; CECO 1/Lt. D. McCann; 2/Lt. M. Martin, M/Sgt. W. Stanton; 2/Lt. J. Dyben; M/Sgt. A. Ryan; 2/Lt. D. O'Connor; 2/Lt. E. Kobrow; M/Sgt. S. Sikorski; 2/Lt. D. Bratta; M/Sgt. K. Anchor; M/Sgt. N. Arms; 1/Sgt. L. Haskin.

CHESS CLUB

K. Bourne, M. Cooke, P. Lindquist, W. Rowe.

To promote interest in chess is the high ideal held by all members of Glenbard's Chess Club. When members of the 1956-57 club sat poised over a rousing game of chess in the spirit of rivalry, they sometimes lost sight of this ideal. Meeting every week in the year, this year's Chess Club has kept a record of each player's status, thus encouraging lively competition. Since any student of Glenbard may join the club, it boasts many members, ranging from the barest beginner to the most proficient pro.

President of the club this year was Ken Bourne. Ably assisting their "king" were William Rowe, vice-president; Peter Lindquist, treasurer; and Mike Cooke, sergeant-at-arms. As faculty advisor, Mr. Kietzman guided the activities of the "pawns," "rooks," and "bishops."

CURRENT HISTORY CLUB

Promoting interest in the social sciences by holding discussions on current events and by showing slides of foreign countries, the Current History Club has had a busy 1956-1957 agenda. Although all of the club's activities have been stimulating, members cite their discussion of segregation as being most invigorating. Meetings this year have been highlighted by the descriptive reports of Katie Knowles and Miss Snow, who both told of their experiences in Europe.

Current History Club was led by Alta Cools, president; Owen Hein, vice-president; Cynthia Kelley, treasurer; and Anne Beall, secretary. Miss Diers was the advisor.

A. Cools, O. Hein, A. Beall, C. Kelley.

FERROEQUINOLOGISTS

D. Christensen, H. Peterson, B. Wendorff, I. Muir, and P. Linnert.

One of the youngest of Glenbard's clubs is the Railroad Club, organized in 1955 by a group of enthusiastic ferreoquinologists.

In order to promote interest in model railroading and prototype railroading, this year's club has sponsored many activities. In November Dave Hoffman, former president of the club, presented a slide program; in December the members viewed a film on the R. D. C. railiner. To gain a close-up view of railroading, the ferreoquinologists took several field trips in the spring.

This year's officers included Doug Christensen, president; Ian Muir, vice-president; Pete Linnert, secretary; and Fred Crissey, treasurer. Mr. Becwar was the advisor.

G CLUB

D. Obrecht, R. Edwards, B. Biederman, J. Bjork.

The four-fold purpose of Glenbard's G-Club is to provide an honorary organization of athletes who have been awarded the official G monogram, to encourage a high type of moral, to encourage high ideals, clean athletes, and clean athletics, and to promote good sportsmanship. The club sponsored a Parent's Night for parents of football players, Dad's day, and a G-Club-faculty game. Club members also participated in rope-holding at home basketball games. The year was climaxed by a picnic where members engaged in various sports.

"Captain" was Jerry Bjork, "co-captain" was Bill Biederman, assisting were Rich Edwards, treasurer; and Dave Obrecht, sergeant-at-arms. The "G-Men" were advised by Mr. Cook and the team coaches.

G. A. A.

Row One: M. Schaus, G. Carmichael, M. Huber, and J. Smith. Row Two: K. Davison, H. Moran, B. Dukelow, G. Johnson, M. Hanson, J. Fritz, J. Nelson, and B. Kelly.

To encourage sportsmanship, to create a spirit of fair play, to help build better citizens, to teach the principles of leadership and responsibility, and to establish dependability is the purpose of Girls Athletic Association.

Highlighting G.A.A.'s year were its copping of first place honors in the homecoming float contest, sponsoring a "girls-pay-for-it" dance, "Dutch Treat," and the annual Dad and Daughter Banquet.

Officers this year were Gail Carmichael, president; Mary Huber, vice-president; Judi Smith, secretary; and Marilyn Schaus, treasurer. Council members were: juniors Martha Hanson, Judy Nelson, Kathy Davison, and Janet Fritz, and sophomores: Bonnie Kelly, Gayle Johnson, Barb Dukelow and Helen Moran.

Mrs. Virginia Sliker and Mrs. Eleanor Arlen advised the group.

GLENBARD

HELLADIANS

The purpose of Helladians, an honorary art club, is to recognize and unite all Glenbard students who have made outstanding contributions to the field of fine arts and to promote a greater interest in art appreciation.

The name "Helladians" refers to the ancient Greeks, who were successful in expressing something fundamental and universal in their work.

To gain membership, a person must be nominated by a faculty member and approved by the council of Helladians and their advisor.

Leading the new group, organized in January, 1957, were Clifford Winter, president; Ken Kroger, vice-president; Barbara Staedke, secretary; Mary Brammer, treasurer; Marguerite Fox, program chairman; and Shirley Matlock, membership chairman. Miss Ely was the advisor.

OFFICERS: M. Brammer, M. Fox, K. Kroger, B. Staedke, S. Matlock, C. Winter.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

Inter-Club Council, organized in 1955 by the presidents of G.A.A., Pep Club, Y-Teens, and Student Council, promotes better relationships among these organizations. Composed of one member from Student Council and four members from each of the girls' clubs, Council has a busy agenda. This year's activities included the Big and Little Sister program in the fall, the sponsoring of Mrs. Billie Davis for a convo in January, and the Donkey Basketball game in April.

The first semester officers were Janet Malm, president and Kathy Davison, secretary-treasurer. Serving as officers the second semester were Marilyn Schaus, president and Donna Unrath, secretary-treasurer.

JUNIOR HI-Y

D. Walter, K. Blatter, J. Gruenberg, G. Lewis.

To create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community is the purpose of Junior Hi-Y. Any freshman or sophomore boy who agrees to follow the purpose of the club and has attended two consecutive meetings may join Junior Hi-Y. During the 1956-57 year some of the activities were a swim night, the candlelight service, and a panel discussion on dating.

Leaders of the club were Doug Walter, president; Gary Lewis, vice-president; Jim Gruenberg, secretary-treasurer; and Ken Blatter, chaplain. Advisors were Mr. Wiltsie and Mr. Dutch.

JUNIOR IZAAC WALTON LEAGUE

D. Bell, B. Brunk, J. Routson, S. Elrick.

To aid in the fight for the conservation of natural resources in the United States is the aim of Junior Izaak Walton League, which was organized in the late 1930's.

In order to learn more about the various aspects and methods of preserving natural resources, the members of "Junior Ikes" viewed films on topics such as soil conservation and heard a speaker discuss "Birds in the Winter." In December, they went on an ice fishing trip.

Officers this year were Jim Routson, president; Bob Brunk, vice-president; and Diane Bell, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Burnett advised the club.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

S. Pontikes, P. Schneider, N. Gerzan, L. Harris, J. Lantz, M. Hitzman.

"Services for others, our country, our community, and our school," is the purpose of Junior Red Cross.

Christmas projects, gift boxes, the annual bow sale, and correspondence albums were just a few of the many worth-while activities this club carried on. Each month the officers went to Chicago Chapter, a meeting of all Red Cross members in the surrounding area.

The chief executives of the club were president, Marilyn Hitzman; vice-president, Janet Lantz; secretary, Nancy Gerzan; treasurer, Sandy Pontikes; project chairman, Marvel ("Pupsie") Schneider; and ways and means chairman, Lauryn Harris. The advisors were Mrs. Davis and Miss Bomgardner.

KITS AND SKITS

A. Moran, J. Gorndt, B. Budd, L. Kent, N. Robinson, F. McDavitt.

“Hurrah, hurrah, we’re glad to say,
You were terrif on tryout day,
And now from Glenbard’s senior wits
A welcome, friend, to Kits and Skits.”

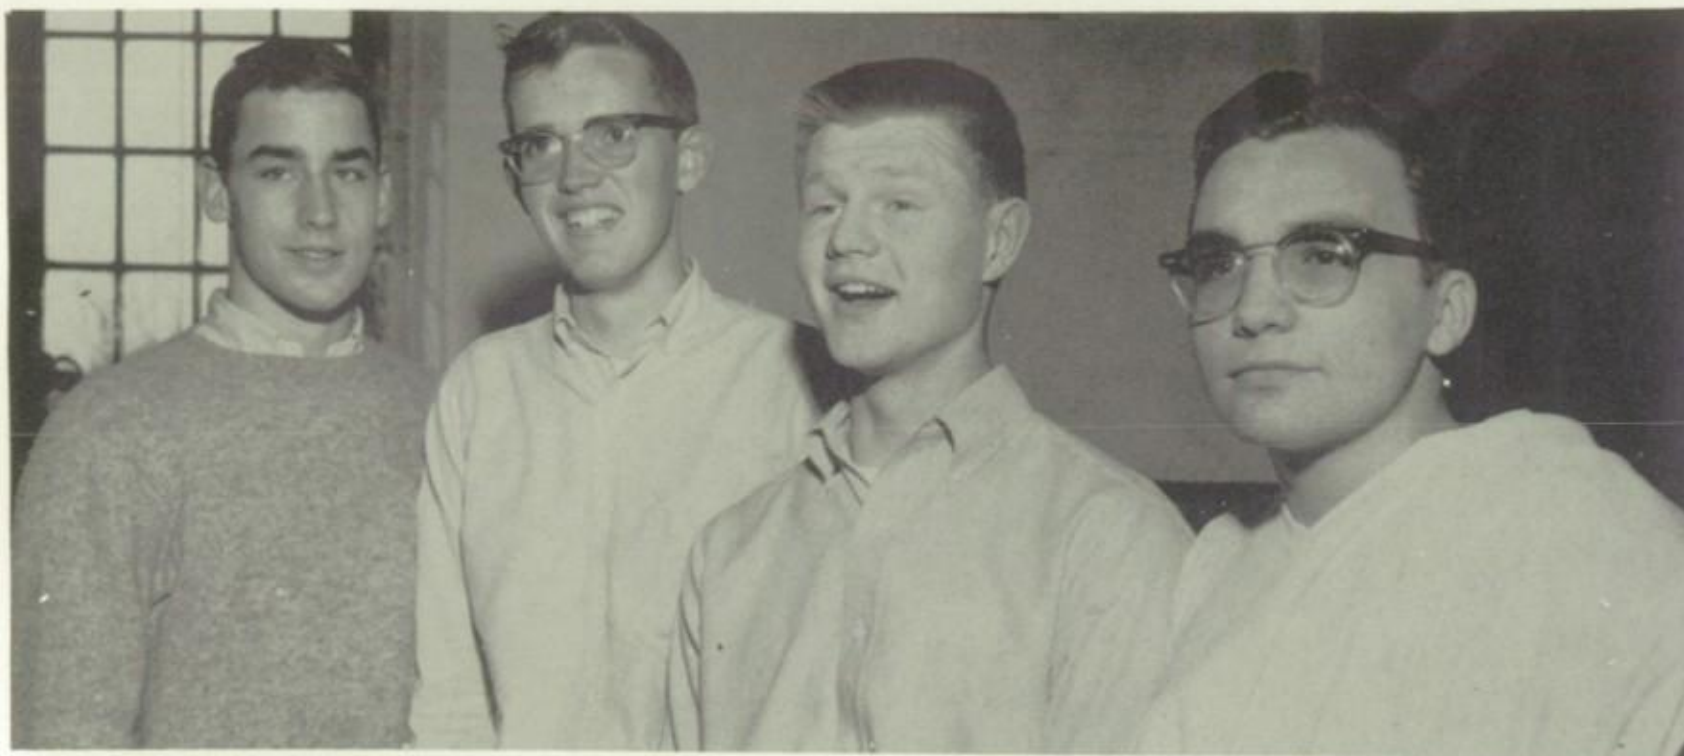

So headed the invitations to those upper-classmen who had earned membership in Kits and Skits, the drama club organized by Miss Whitfield for the purpose of promoting an active interest in participation and appreciation of the stage. Holding monthly meetings, Kits and Skits engaged in numerous activities this year. Corroborating with Masque and Gavel and Thespians, the club entered a winning float in the homecoming parade. In November the members presented a one-act play, "The Red Carnation;" in March they joined Helladians in sponsoring the Masque and Palette party. By presenting a play to the student body in convocation, Kits and Skits climaxed the year.

Louise Kent, "leading lady," was assisted by Fred McDavitt, vice-president; Judy Gorndt, secretary-treasurer; and Burgess Budd, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Whitfield was the advisor.

LATIN CLUB

C. Griffith, L. Munson, J. Heald, R. Swallow.

"Was that a ghost that just walked by?" Since all prospective members appeared in white togas and stolas, this might have been the question asked when Latin Club held its annual initiation.

In order to enrich the study of Latin, to give a good classical background for modern living, and to present the usefulness of the classics in an informal way, the 1956-1957 Latin Club engaged in many activities. The club, which consisted of Latin III and IV students and held regular monthly meetings during the sixth period, began the year by entering a float in the homecoming parade. These meetings were composed of various contests, games, and panels based upon the history, mythology, geography, and literature of the ancient Greeks and Romans.

Acting as "Imperator" was Richard Swallow. His "Legati" were John Heald, vice-president; Lester Munson, secretary; and Arthur Griffith, treasurer. Miss Delpha Patterson was the advisor.

MAGIC CLUB

On November 6, 1956, the "Prestidigitators" were organized to give Glenbard students, who have a sincere interest in magic, an opportunity to learn more about this fascinating art. Their meetings, which were held once a month, were planned to give every member a chance to show and improve his repertoire of deceptive tricks.

The chief "sleight of hand" men were Greg Heier, president; Steve Elvick, vice-president; and Bob Goldsmith, secretary-treasurer. This past year, Magic Club, the smallest club ever to be established at Glenbard, was under the leadership of Mr. William Evans.

Seated: B. Goldsmith. Standing: G. Heier, S. Elvick, B. Rodriguez, M. Abraham.

MASQUE & GAVEL

In the year 1957, Masque and Gavel, among other things, sponsored good speech week, took a field trip to Chicago, and invited Mrs. Clint Youle to speak before the club. Two initiations were held for candidates who qualified for membership by outstanding work and recitation, club activities, convos, and all-around good citizenship.

This honorary club was led by Speaker of the House Pam Hurlbut; assisted by Doug Christensen, vice-president; and Becky Wright, secretary-treasurer. The advisor, Mrs. Kronsagen, greatly helped the members to uphold their purpose, "To promote good speech."

B. Wright, D. Christensen, P. Hurlbut.

MATH CLUB

B. Rowe, F. Anger, M. Rajeck.

Although called the Glenbard Mathematics Club, this club is not an agglomeration of squares and cubes! Mike Cooke organized the club two years ago in order to arouse enthusiasm for mathematics. These meetings revolve around demonstrations and explanations of various phases of mathematics.

Math Club was led by Frank Anger, president; Merrill Rajeck, vice-president; Bill Rowe, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Fahey, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Faist was the advisor.

MONITORS

OFFICE HELP

Student office help is a service organization consisting of 23 girls who aided the regular office staff. Group members collect, sort, and deliver attendance cards, extra slips, pink passes, and notes as well as running errands for teachers. With the assistance of Mr. Miller, they are in charge of the ticket booth during the lunch periods. While helping their school, these girls learn about the operation of business offices.

P.A.L.

"La Liga Pan Americana" held several interesting meetings, including a movie on Costa Rica and a skit, "Caperucita Roja." During January, three students from the University of Mexico spoke on their native country.

Head "señorita" was Natalie Bigelow, assisted by Judy Kufer, vice-president; Jane Besant, secretary-treasurer; Karen Chuttke, program chairman; and Barbara Staedke, art chairman. Miss Shuck and Miss Britton were the advisors.

J. Kufer, B. Staedke, J. Besant, K. Chuttke, N. Bieglow.

PEP CLUB

Row One: L. Grainger, M. Hesterman, B. Belsley, D. Dexter. Row Two: B. Campbell, J. Diederich, B. Thompson, P. Minick, J. Prater, P. West, C. Malm.

To promote school spirit and to extend good sportsmanship is the two-fold purpose of Pep Club. Since it was organized five years ago, Pep Club members have been faithful in attendance at basketball and football games. The activities which crowded their spare time included the torchlight parade and float, a skit for convocation, the annual barbecue, and the new officers initiation.

The busy officers were Marilyn Hesterman, president; Barbara Belsley, vice-president; Debbie Dexter, secretary; and Lynn Grainger, treasurer. Senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman class heads were Pat Minick, Buffy Campbell, Connie Malm, and Barbara Thompson, respectively. Other council members were Jill Diederich, Judy Prater, and Penny West. Miss McMahon, Miss Faist, and Miss Pieper served as advisors.

Pinnacle, summit, peak, excelsior! These were the watchwords of the yearbook staff. Amid the deadlines, layouts, copy assignments, and the sales and ad campaigns, we had but to climb the stairs to our lofty rest in room 600 to again realize our ambition, the best possible Pinnacle.

Work on the '57 Pinnacle began more than a year ago. In the spring we decided on our cover and took pictures of the school and spring sports. Knowing that we would soon be pressed for time, we planned during the summer for the school year ahead. In the fall speed was of foremost importance. We took rolls and rolls of film, sold books and ads . . . started on our first layouts.

Bare hours before the first December deadline, we sent in our checked, proofread pages. We couldn't wait for the results. The copy flew as we repeated the first deadline sequence three more times.

Finally all was silent. We turned to Mr. Firley, our advisor, for assurance. But our fears were dispelled. When the final proofs came back, we felt that this Pinnacle would be remembered for years to come. We had achieved our goal.

Because it holds no meetings and has no officers, Quill and Scroll at Glenbard, a division of an international journalism society, is a unique club. Membership is awarded to those who do outstanding work on either the Glen Bard or the Pinnacle staffs. By writing 75 inches of copy and earning 500 service points, eight journalists from the Glen Bard editorial staff were awarded membership; by earning 300 points, seven from the business and mechanical staff were also chosen. Seven Pinnacle members were chosen for their merit in editing and managing.

SCIENCE CLUB

From atomic energy study to dissecting rabbits, the Glenbard Science Club fulfilled its aim "To further the interest in, and benefits of, modern science to Glenbard students." Besides learning about unknowns for themselves, the Club did its best to help others. By purchasing films and laboratory equipment they greatly aided the science teachers. Each year they supervise the Science Talent Search examinations. In March their annual trip to Northwestern University was widely attended. These mental-giants were led this year by Mike "Goliath" Cooke, president; Merrill "Cyclops" Rajeck, vice-president; and Peter "Hercules" Lindquist, secretary-treasurer. Mr. DeWalt was the advisor.

SENIOR HI-Y

Hi-Y, one of Glenbard's oldest clubs, is a branch of the Y. M. C. A. Any junior or senior boy may join by standing up to their high ideals of clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship, and clean living.

A full schedule of activities for the year included Big Ten football movies, career night, and banquets for both the mothers and fathers.

Heading this year's organization were John Deardorff, president; John Helledy, vice-president; Jerry Bjork, secretary; Lee Jess, treasurer; Burgess Budd, chaplain; and Fred Crissey, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Baer served as advisor.

The worthy purpose of Smoking Council, which was organized in 1954, is to execute, enforce, and maintain the smoking rules in the building and on the campus. To be eligible for election to Smoking Council, one must be a junior or senior major letterwinner. All the members were chosen by the upper-classes. A new chairman was elected every two weeks to preside over their meetings which are held every Wednesday.

The officers were Lee Jess, president; Lane Patterson, recording secretary; and Burgess Budd and Dick Janis, sergeants-at-arms. Jerry Bjork, Bob Lewis, Dave Obrecht, and Bill Biederman were the remaining council members. Mr. Miller served as the advisor.

790 CLUB

To further interests in library work, to engage in worthwhile projects connected with books and libraries, and to provide social activities for library assistants are the main aims of the 790 Club, an organization of volunteer library workers. Besides straightening shelves, checking out books, and helping baffled "Bards" find information, this year's 790 Club sponsored a get-acquainted party, a Christmas decorating party, and a field trip to the Chicago Public Library.

The club was led this year by president, Donna Stripling; vice-president, Dave Dutton; and secretary-treasurer, Linda Fischer. Miss Miller and Miss Aust, faculty advisors, sponsored the activities of this beneficial club.

COUNCIL

A Council committee meeting

Student Council, Glenbard's student government, has completed another successful year as the leader of the Hilltoppers. The Council aims to promote co-operation among the different organizations of Glenbard, to promote school spirit, to promote high standards of conduct in leadership, honesty, loyalty, and courtesy, to promote respect for property, and to provide leadership training. The qualifications for candidates are leadership, co-operation, good citizenship, scholarship (C average), desirable attitude, and good appearance and personal habits.

Three of the most important projects of Student Council during the year were planning the Homecoming Weekend, decorating the school at Christmas time, and supervising the Variety Show. Throughout the year, this organization also provides countless services to the student body; for example, Club of the Week posters, Castle Keys, freshman day, election campaigns for student council officers, the point system, cheerleading try-outs, and the Safety-Courtesy Campaign.

Student Council was led by Joe Babb, president; Kenton Whitehead, vice-president; Rita Kellogg, secretary; and Dave Fields, treasurer. The advisors were Miss Dowling, Miss Schwartz, and Mr. Miller.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB

Row One: D. Ade, B. Horton, B. Novak, G. Konkle, J. Kalsbeek, B. Foster. Row Two: Mr. and Mrs. Green.

"Grab your partners; bow and swing!"

Calls such as these were familiar as the Glenbard Square Dance Club members promenaded to the club's monthly meetings. This year the "promenaders" not only practiced their square dance skills but also learned several reels and Mexican dances. Ever since Square Dance Club was reorganized in 1954, its purpose has been to learn and enjoy folk and square dancing. Because of its universal appeal, Square Dance Club has many members.

Doing the instructing and calling this year were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green. Head couples were Bill Novak, president; and Gail Konkle, vice-president. Assisting them were Barb Horton, secretary; and Jean Kalsbeek, treasurer. Mr. Magor and Mr. Bernasek were the faculty advisors.

The curtain drew up on this year's Thespians, showing a stage filled with enthusiastic amateurs. During the month of September, Glenbard's actors and actresses spent many hours in preparation for the Sweater Hop. Working together with Masque and Gavel and Kits and Skits, Thespians entered an award-winning float, "Jack Be Nimble" in the homecoming parade. Although the club had no special programs in November, members worked diligently in producing the Senior Play. A trip to Chicago to see the stage play "No Time for Sergeants" spotlighted Thespians varied activities.

This year's major roles were played by Bob Manna, president; Bob Brown, vice-president; and Jane Dixon, secretary-treasurer. Miss Whitfield was the sponsor.

YOUTH CENTER

Although Youth Center is not an official Glenbard Club, the 1956-1957 Youth Center has had a membership composed of more than one-half of Glenbard's enrollment. As in years past, the main service of this year's Youth Center has been sponsoring socials on weekends throughout the year. In addition the club has held two dances, one at Christmas and one in the spring, and has sponsored a jazz concert. In order to make these projects a success, Youth Center's junior board, made up of thirty-two members representing each of the four classes, has worked diligently under the guidance of an adult board.

Officers this year were Debbie Gentry, president; Bill McConochie, vice-president; Jo Ann Higgins, secretary; and Walt Kuehne, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McGinnis were the adult sponsors.

Participation in the Big and Little Sister program in September, Y-Teens sponsored a tea for the freshmen and their Big Sisters. In December the club presented the annual Candlelight Service jointly with Hi-Y. The traditional Heart Hop, held in February by Hi-Y and Y-Teens, was based upon the theme "Moonlight and Roses." In order to acquaint Y-Teen members with new spring styles, the club sponsored a spring style show. Climaxing their eventful year, Y-Teens presented the Mother-Daughter Banquet in May.

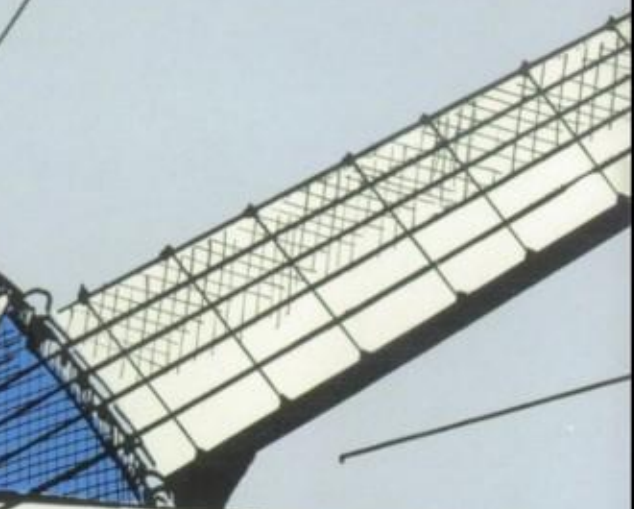

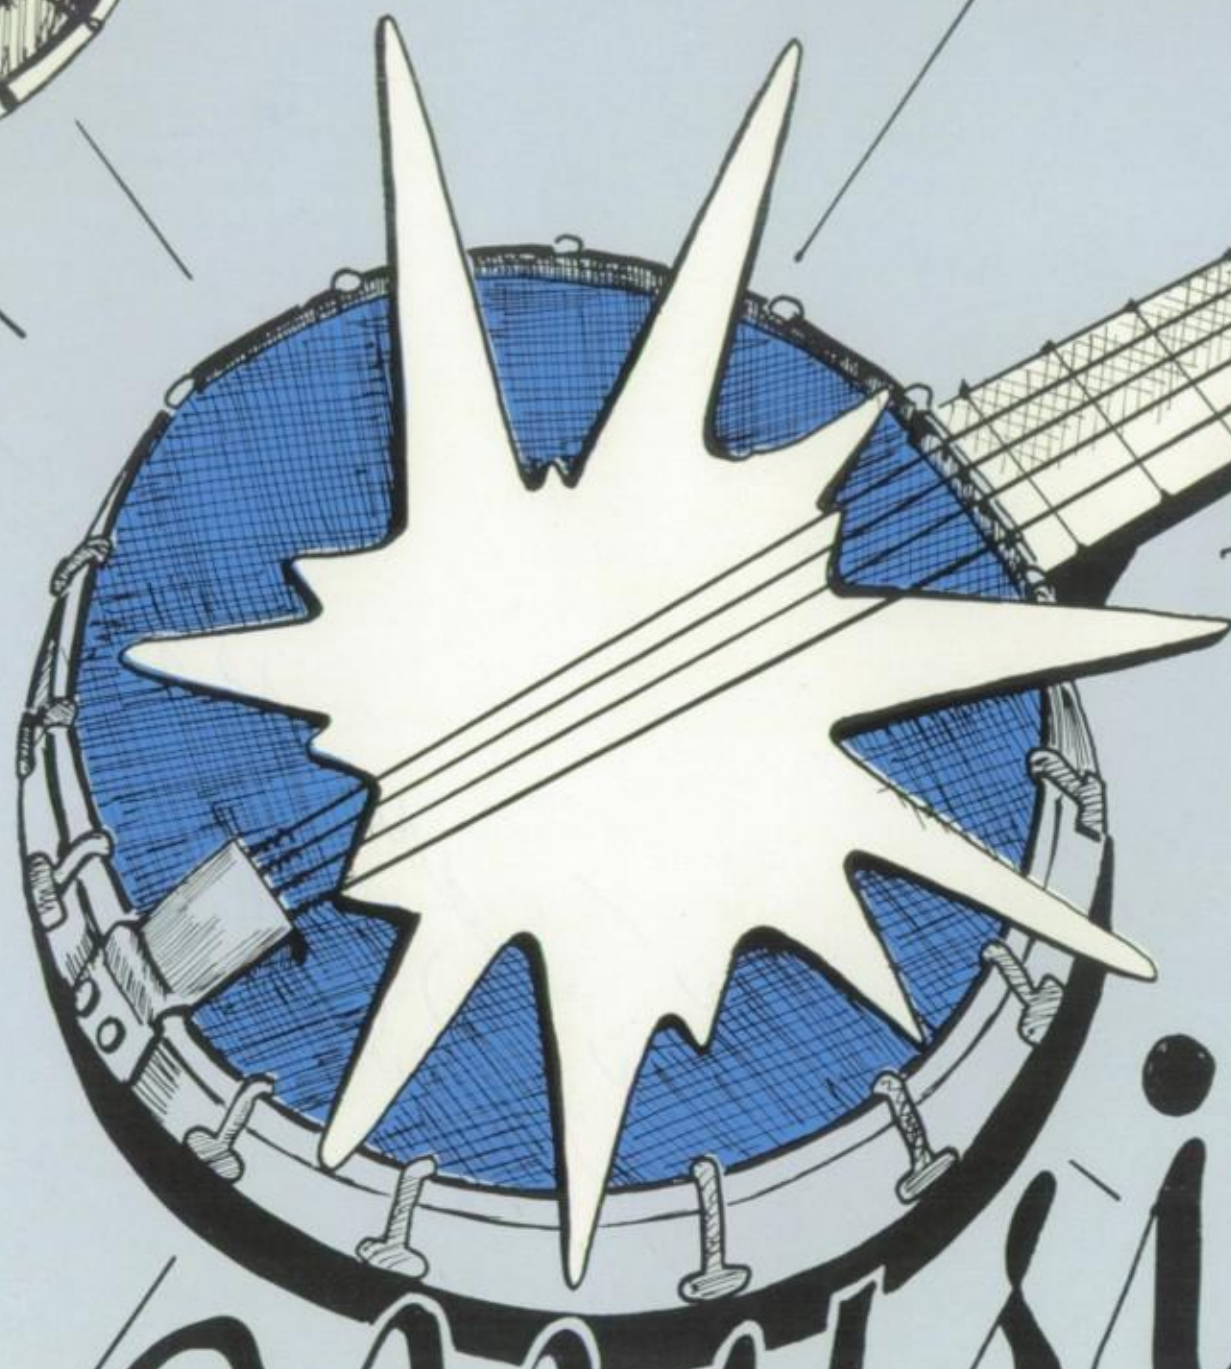

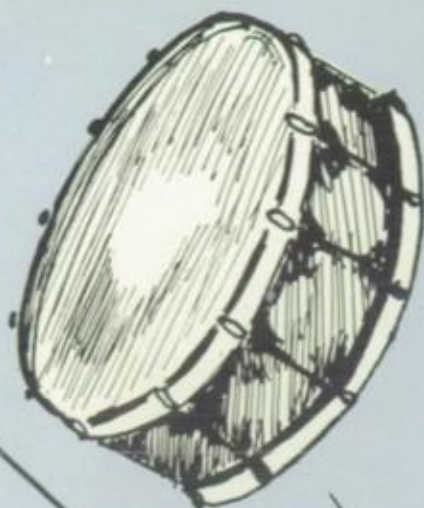

Officers were Bunny Whitehead, president; Becky Wright, vice-president; Elaine Moore, senior service chairman; Sherry Johnson, sophomore service chairman; Kristen Berg, senior art chairman; Wendy John, sophomore art chairman; Laurie Bell, social chairman; and Romaine Troost, program chairman. ## CONCERT BAND

Left, Right! Left, Right! Knees up! Toes down! Practice, practice, and more practice! This year the band marched at every home football game and in two parades. They sat down long enough to play in four convos, attend both district and state contests, play at music festivals, and give two concerts, one at Christmas along with the choir and the other in February at their annual musicale. The band was hard at work not only in the school year, but also during the summer. Several members attended a music camp and one senior received a music scholarship. The summer band as a whole gave eight concerts at parks in Glen Ellyn and Lombard. Although the band is partially supported by the school, it has to earn a certain amount of money on its own each year. To raise funds, they sold chocolate during a week long drive and profited from the sale of tickets to their concert.

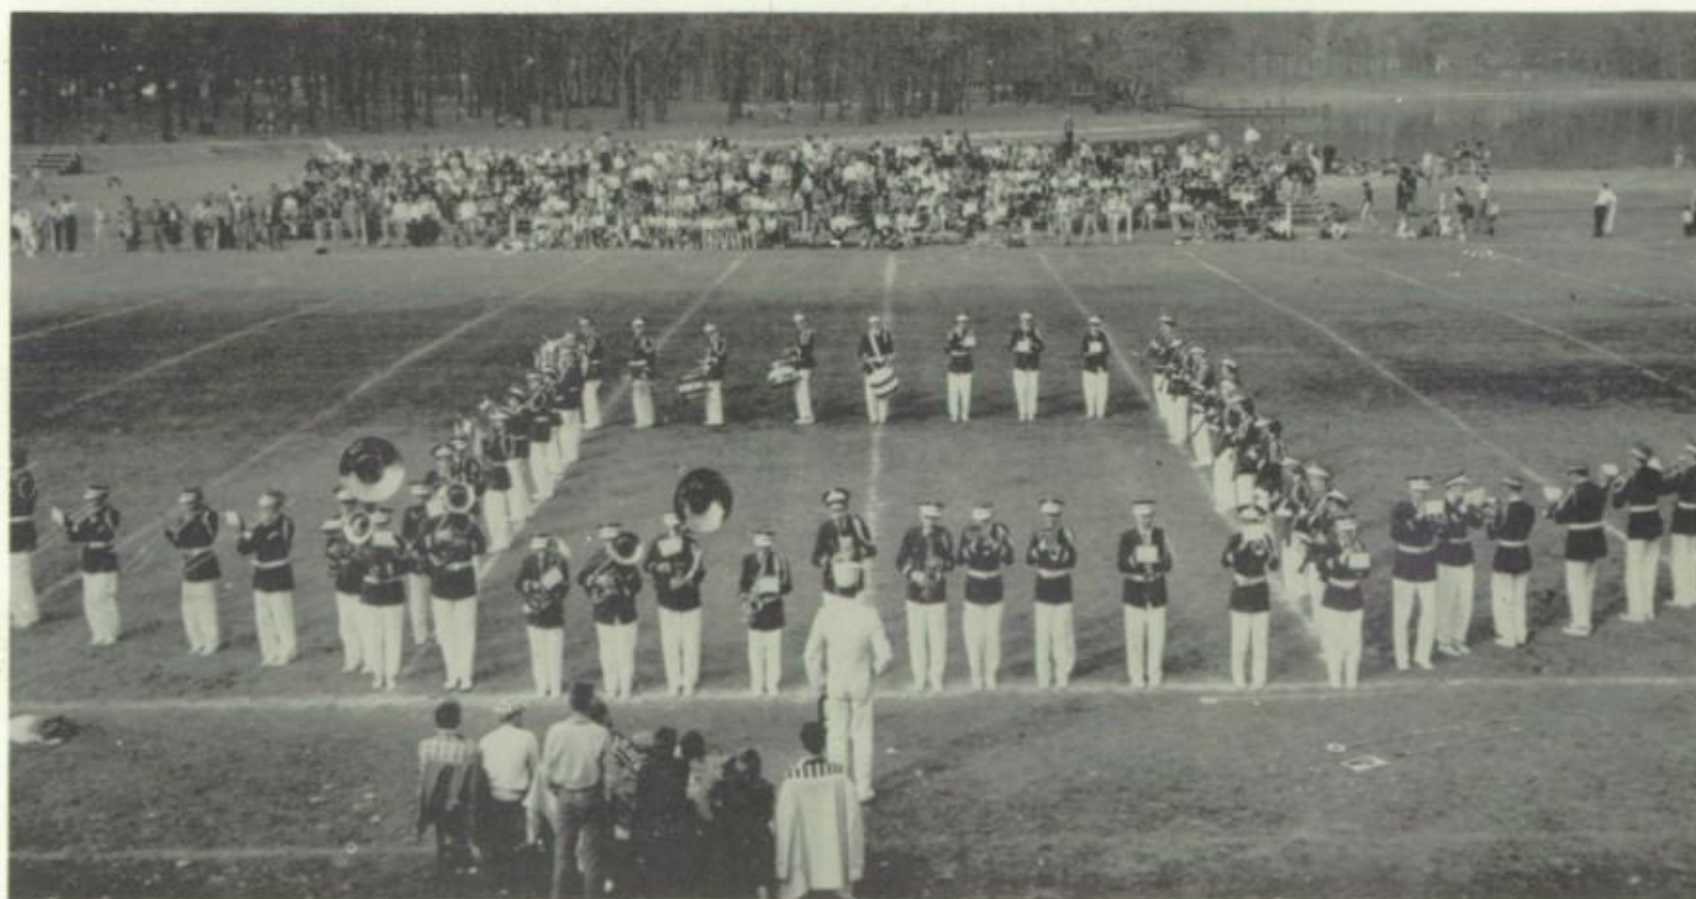

Outstanding was senior, Donald Patterson, serving as president, student director, drum major, and solo player. He worked harmonically with Wayne Smart, junior, vice-president; Linda Wall, senior, secretary; and Karen Dusing, junior, treasurer. Also on the council were Walter Kuehne, senior, Barbara Scanlon, junior, Janice Gangwer, senior, and Warren Madden, senior. Mr. Wall did an exceptional job as director. Even though he had a relatively small band, having about 65 players, he conducted his way through a successful year.

PLAY

On the 9th of November, 1956, the seniors displayed their varied organizational abilities by presenting the moving play, A Man Called Peter. For weeks ahead of time, committees, directors, and talented actors worked on this fine production. This was the first time that a performance of such a deep and profound nature was given on the Glenbard stage. Both the players and the audience were to be commended on their excellent reception.

With cries of "hail to the conquering heroes," Glenbard's "miracle" team completed their 1956-57 season by routing the Red Devils of Hinsdale in a 25-19 plunder. In addition to this victory, Coaches Kastrinos, Piatt, and Astroth made football history by sorely trouncing the Wheaton Tigers in a 13-0 battle. Glenbard then romped over Riverside-Brookfield, 32-19, but a powerful Maine force stopped the Hilltoppers, 19-13. The varsity men then squeaked by Downers, 13-12, only to have La Grange defeat the Bards, 25-0. Vindicating this loss, Glenbard proceeded to outgun York, 41-20, and then squelched Arlington, 26-13.

Glenbard's war horsemen rose to their former state of many seasons past: a state of threatened victory, and an assured battle.

HONORS

Copping innumerable honors, Glenbard varsity men established themselves among all-time Glenbard heroes.

Bill ("Bump") Biederman proved the mainstay as he led the team from the quarterback position. Ranked first in all-conference, he received second place award for all-state.

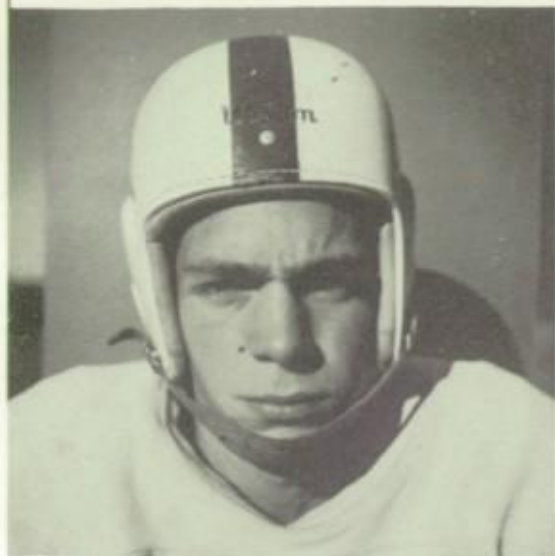

Dave Obrecht, with his huge frame of 6 feet, 190 pounds, pounded through holes through which even a rabbit could not travel. Averaging 5.6 yards per carry, Dave made himself known to all football rivals as he swept first place honors in all-conference competition.

Rich Edwards demonstrated thoroughly Glenbard's traditional spirit of fine play. In pass defense or receiving the ball, Rich's lithe body compensated for his lack of height; he duly deserved his honorable mention on the all-conference team.

Lee Jess, with his comparatively light build, proved weight is not an essential factor in being a good center. Lee admirably filled one of football's toughest positions and well merited his all-conference honorable mention rating.

Tommy Thompson, Glenbard's only junior representative, on the all-conference team, very adequately filled Glenbard's right end slot as his sticky fingers snared many an important pass. Achieving honorable mention this year, Tommy is very good all-state material for next year.

Dick Swallow, one of Glenbard's men of much sweat but little laud, used determination over his 175 pounds to halt or move any rival lineman. Plunging through the line to throw opponents for appreciable losses, Dick rightly earned a place on the honorable mention, all-conference team.

Glenbard's spectacular achievement of downing state-ranked Hinsdale in the final game of the year will never be forgotten by players and spectators alike. By mauling the Red Devils Glenbard forced them to share first place honors with Maine and also enabled Glenbard to tie for third. The entire team, from end to end and from center to fullback, shared in the profuse honors.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

Coached by Mr. Wiltsie and Mr. Hutt, Glenbard's frosh-soph football team opened the season by battling the Wheaton Tigers and Riverside-Brookfield to scoreless ties with brilliant displays of defense. Following these, a superior team from Maine ran over the junior Bards, 28-0. Downers Grove proceeded to dole an unappetizing 34-0 defeat; however, the frosh-soph scored a touchdown in a 27-6 engagement with the La Grange Lions. Homecoming saw the future varsity men edged 7-6 against York. After the Bards had taken a decisive 20-6 defeat from Arlington, the extra-point blues again plagued the team as they dropped the last game of the season to Hinsdale, 7-6.

Although this year's frosh-soph has had rough going, the team, composed greatly of freshmen, has now had a good deal of experience and should shoot up next year to bear fruit.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

In the opening game of the season the freshmen ably coached by Mr. Lazier and Mr. Evans, won a decisive victory over the Riverside-Brookfield team, 7-0. Then meeting a powerful Maine team, Glenbard went down 45 to 0. Coming back somewhat the next week, they battled hard, only to be beaten 13 to 0 by Downers. The following week the freshmen were downed 27-6 by Lyons. Then encountering a huge York team, Glenbard was beaten by its traditional rival, 25-0. In the final game, Arlington downed us 25-7.

Because the freshmen lost many players to the frosh-soph, the team didn't do as well as it could have done.

VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

Row 1: P. Shepherd, B. Tichy, G. Zamistil, T. Dodd, B. Wentzlaff, J. Jordan, L. Pietrzak, J. Reinhardt, C. Winter. Row 2: C. A. R. Johnson, Coach, R. Leonard, J. Tichy, M. Malec, J. La Fleur, S. Domville, D. Ade, B. Foster, T. Henry. Row 3: B. Schwartz, F. Biederman, G. Cook, J. Lytton, B. Wingader, D. Temple, A. Schmidt.

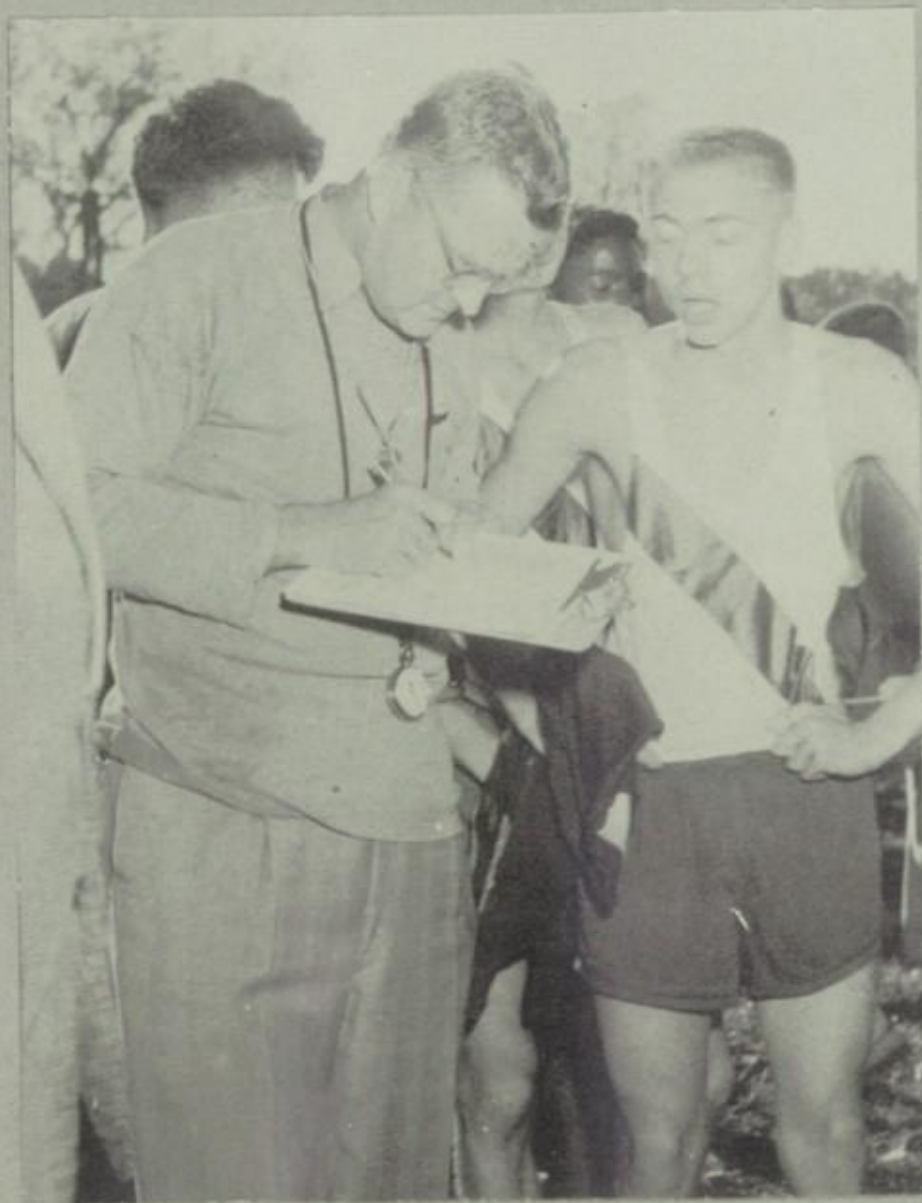

Glenbard's varsity cross country was once again a conference power even though they finished fifth in the conference competition. Hampered by injuries, Glenbard lacked the decisive victories in the second half of the season that it had in the first. Glenbard harriers grandly opened the season by outdistancing RB, 15-104. They defeated Maine, 25-30. Downers Grove handed the thinclads a close 31-29 defeat. Slowed down by loss of man power, the varsity men suffered scores of 37-21, Lyons; 30-26, York; 41-16, Arlington; and 48-20, Hinsdale.

Captain Phill Shepherd distinguished both himself and his team by breaking five records. After he had set a new Glenbard course record of 9:20.3 against RB, he placed first on the home grounds against Hinsdale with a 9:18.6.

Although Glenbard's traditionally strong cross country team was crippled by injuries, it demanded and received respect from all other conference cross country squads.

FROSH-SOPH CROSS COUNTRY

Row 1: G. Kennedy, W. Jensen, D. Fuller, R. Woodruff, G. Mutz, J. Craig, J. Perreault, D. Hollinger.
Row 2: P. Krystal, L. Weisgerber, S. Capel, D. Brown, J. Weissenborn, D. Jurewicz, J. Smith, M. Wright, L. Schwartz.
Row 3: J. Harkman, R. Griffith, J. Staedke, J. Lewis, J. Harkman, J. Stebe, J. Pond, R. LaFleur.
Row 4: R. Novak, B. Craine, D. Claypool, P. Komada, L. Swanson, B. Brunk, J. Frega, J. Gruenberg.
Row 5: B. Finch, D. Hansen, C. Young, J. Rainford, B. Early, D. Cullen, B. Kopp, A. Schoolwerth, T. Chandler.

Paced by co-captains Dave Hollinger and John Pond, the frosh-soph harriers tied for first in conference competition. Starting the season, the junior Bards outran Riverside 20-55 and defeated Maine, 27-34. Following these victories, the speedsters left Downers Grove trailing 15-125. Lyons then fell before the powerful squad, 22-41. The Bards well represented Glenbard in the invitational meet at La Grange by placing second with 34 points, while first place Hinsdale had 32. However, in the last run of the year, the Bards avenged this loss by defeating the Red Devils, 20-48.

By placing second at the invitational meet, Coach Johnson's thinclads established themselves as future conference rulers.

GIRLS TENNIS

Row 1: K. Knowles, C. Vogel, G. Carmichael, A. Berquist, A. Coleman, C. Corrigan. Row 2: G. Selman, J. Nelson, J. Whittaker, L. Carver, J. Bodo.

Coached by Mrs. Arlen, the girls tennis team started the season by edging out Oak Park, 3 to 1. In the next match they trounced Hinsdale. On September 26, the girls routed Proviso by winning all 5 matches. To end a fine season the team tied Wheaton.

Possessing a majority of juniors, the girls tennis team should have a very successful next season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Displaying undisputed skill, courage, good sportsmanship, and depth, Glenbard's varsity basketball team swept innumerable honors and copped an enviable record for the 1956-57 season. The varsity five demonstrated skill as was shown by their fine record. Out of 21 games played, they triumphed in 18 games and lost only 3 times for better than a 90% average. Against 1273 points granted to opponents, Glenbard amassed 1591. Courage deserves no second berth in Glenbard's list of achievements. Throughout the entire season Glenbard's "spark" prevailed. It was a common sight to see Glenbard closely matched at the end of a half with the hope of the opponents high; but in the second portion, Glenbard's undaunted mettle led the way to leave the opponent eating the traces of the team's rubber. Though good sportsmanship rarely figures into the final box score, it determines the spectators' opinion of the team. The thirteen hoopsters always conveyed themselves in perfect conduct. Never once was the blemish of a technical foul etched on Glenbard's record due to unsportsman-like conduct. Depth certainly is a prime factor as evidence of a team's potential firepower. Confronted by the injuries of Larry Pietrzak and John Reinhardt, Coach Metcalf merely replaced them with equally dependable men. Also, when Glenbard clipped the wings of York, 85-60, and Immaculate Conception, 86-40, Coach Metcalf tried to check the rising score but failed; his substitutes continued to romp over the opponent.

Since the team was composed of almost one-half juniors, Coach Metcalf expects another typically powerful team and successful season.

FROSH-SOPH BASKETBALL

Row One: D. McCollum, J. Frega, M. Campbell, J. Lewis, D. Jurewicz. Row Two: S. Capel, N. Whitecotton, J. Kelley, B. Finch, D. Hanson, T. Flagge, T. Schoolwerth. Not Pictured: B. Crane, J. Inglis.

Paced by sophomores Joe Kelley, Jim Lewis, and Bob Crane, Glenbard's ponies posted a record of eight wins and nine losses. On home courts the junior bards defeated the championship-bound Hinsdale Imps, 41-35. The loss was one of only two handed to the Hinsdale squad. This typified Glenbard's frosh-soph efficiency at home for out of nine games played at Glenbard, the frosh-soph triumphed in seven and lost only two. A great deal of the baby bards' success was attributed to their lanky 6' 4" center, Denny Hanson. As a freshman, Denny established himself as the scourge of enemy courts as was demonstrated by his 18 point tally against Riverside. Aided by the prospects of this year's powerful freshman team, Coach Rider expects another fine season to come.

HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT

To climax Christmas festivities Glenbard journeyed to Kankakee for the Holiday Tournament. In the opening game, the Bards defeated the highly rated, sweet-sixteen bound Champaign quintet in an overtime, 50 to 46. In the second game the varsity hoopsters, who were on the short end of an 11 point lead 3 various times, caught the fleeing Ottawa Pirates and sank them, 62 to 58. The highest point of the tourney came Saturday night as Glenbard prepared to engage Lincoln for the championship game. The Bard quintet had no trouble as they outclassed the Railsplitters, 59 to 41. Featured in the tournament spotlight, were Bill Biederman, who also made the all-tournament team last year, Rich Edwards, and Tommy Thompson.

The Glenbard track team, coached by George Dekan and C. A. R. Johnson, got off to a fine start by placing second in the Ottawa Relays. Then, in a dual meet with Hinsdale, the Bard cindermen won their first decisive victory of the season. Two days later, the team, totaling 43 points, placed third in the county meet. The following week the thinclads won over a tough La Grange team in the dual meet. Then Glenbard, scoring 102 points, ran away with the Wheaton relays. Following up this win, the cindermen won the Little Four Meet, scoring 68 $\frac{1}{4}$  points. The next Saturday Glenbard placed third in the Hinsdale Relays and proceeded to Arlington where they triumphed in another dual meet. The District Meet rolled around on the eleventh in which Glenbard won a fine second place. Taking 34 points, the thinclads gained third place in the Conference Meet. Winding up the season, Glenbard conquered Wheaton in a dual meet.

The high point of the season came when Glenbard placed twelfth in the State Meet and had two men place high. Lane Patterson won fifth in the 100-yard dash and won third in the 220; in addition, Dick Pond took third place in the 880-yard run. As the records point out, the Bard cindermen raised Glenbard's high reputation by running admirably in all contests.

Winning two and losing five, the Glenbard tennis men, composed mostly of juniors, suffered close losses. York opened the season by downing the Bards, 4-1; however, two closely contested matches could have won the day for the team. Following this loss, Maine defeated the racket wielders, 3-2, after which Riverside took the Bards, 4-1; however, in this defeat, the tennis men lacked their first singles man, Jim Ferguson. Glenbard then decisively trounced Arlington, 4-1. After this victory, a powerful La Grange squad defeated them, 5-0. During the conference meet, second doubles Bob Brown and Bob Claypool seized runner-up position.

With the added measure of experience, Glenbard's racket men, coached by Mr. Magor, look forward to a successful season.

Led by the timely pitching of Tommy Thompson and Jim Lytton, Glenbard's formidable varsity nine won 8 games and lost 6 for the conference season. The highlight of the Bard season came during the Elgin game. Tommy Thompson proved to be the player of the day as he entered the game in the seventh inning and proceeded to strike out eight of the nine men he faced in defeating Elgin 7 to 4. Coached by Liz Astroth and pitched by Jim Lytton, the Glenbard team posted 7 runs while holding Downers Grove, the conference champions, to only 1.

Led by sparkplugs Harvey Sporka, Bob Biehn, Tommy Thompson, and Jim Lytton, the varsity team showed spots of tremendous skill and cool courage. Against Elgin, Glenbard outbattled the Maroons 7 to 4 in a game tied four times. Both Coach Astroth and the team look forward to a successful season.

A rough Hinsdale nine shut out Glenbard, 4 to 0. In a hard-fought game, Riverside squeaked by the junior Bards, 2 to 1. The next time the team played, they were downed by Maine, 9 to 6. After being defeated by La Grange, 16 to 9, the ponies fought all the way only to be beaten 8 to 7 by Downers Grove. From here on the team had clear sailing as they downed Arlington, 5 to 4, and York, 6 to 4.

In the conference meet Glenbard took first place with Bruce Houdek, Al Giersbach, and Bob Doyle shot 71's.

Coached by Mr. Haas, the golf squad is one of Glenbard's best examples of displayed power.

1956

It looked like a fairy castle studded with prince charmings and cinderellas. King Dick Wertz and Queen Suz Chalberg reigned with their court: Marilyn Hesterman, Janet Malm, Pauline Young, Suzi Allen, Leandra Charland, and Judi Donaldson. Who can ever forget the splendour of that first night in June?

To begin the biggest week end of the year, Homecoming, there was an exciting pep convo, including talks by the coaches, a Pep Club skit, and the announcement of the Queen, Pauline Young. She reigned over all the festivities with her court, consisting of Penny West, Donna Unrath, Janet Malm, and Phyllis Greene.

On Friday night, the annual torchlight parade wended its way through the downtown area, around the lake, and finally up to the huge pile of wood which the G-Club members had been gathering together all during the day. After the bonfire had been started, it blazed and crackled while the cheerleaders led a rousing pep session and began the snake dance.

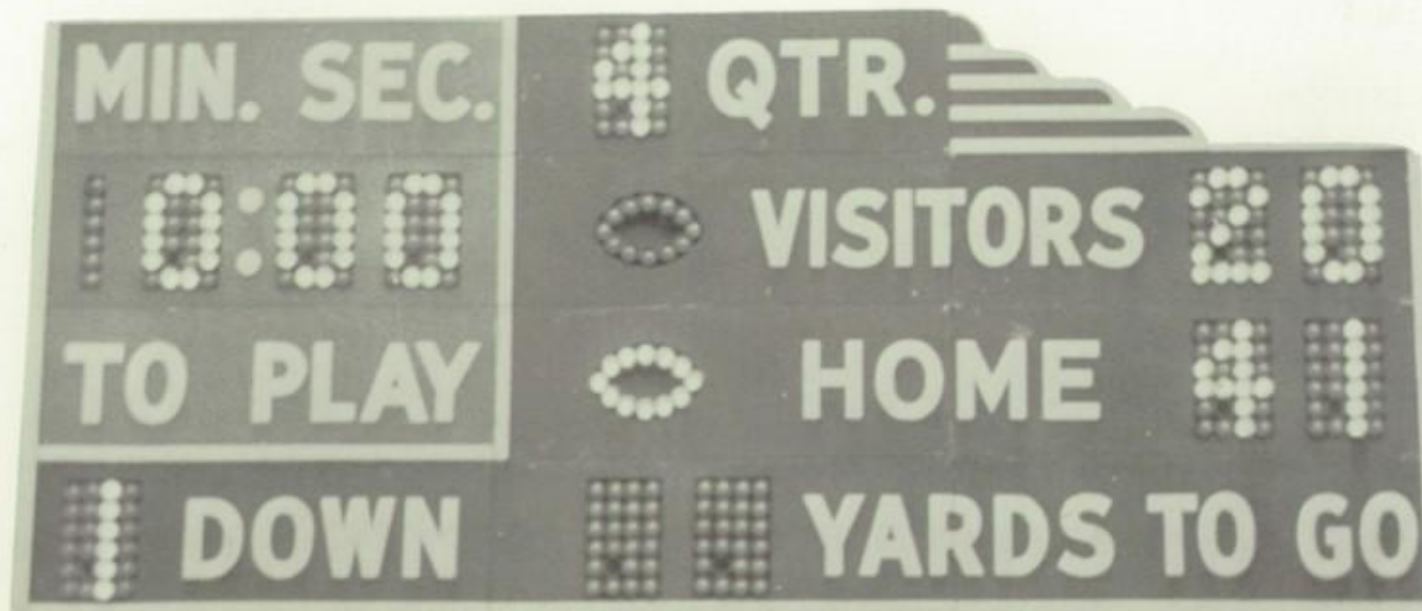

The following morning, Glen Ellyn and Lombard streets were filled with spectators watching the big parade. The prize winning floats for clubs having over 100 members were G.A.A., first place, and Pep Club, second. The Freshman Class, Lombard Junior Girls, and Junior Juveniles won awards, in that order, for groups with under 100 members.

Many loyal Glenbardians developed sore throats and hoarseness from cheering at the game, but it was worth it. We won over York with almost a 20 point lead.

A good time was had by all who attended the semi-formal dance. It certainly was a grand climax to a thrilling and victorious week end.

BOYS BOWLING LEAGUE

Organized November 1, 1956, at the request of thirty sports-minded boys, the Boys Bowling League was one of the three new sports in Glenbard's extra-curricular activities this year. In order to give all boys an opportunity to learn to bowl and to compete with others under desirable conditions, the league bowled each Tuesday night during the winter months. According to Mr. Haas, club advisor, any boy who agrees to bowl each week and who conforms to the league regulations is eligible for membership in this "striking" club. Chief score-keeper this year was Herman Holz, secretary.

To give all boys who like basketball a chance to compete with boys of their own age and ability, seventy-five boys under the guidance of Mistrs Haas, Piatt, Kietzman, Evans, and Kastrinos met every Saturday in the gym to play intramural basketball. With the freshmen beginning at one o'clock, the boys played by classification through the seniors until five o'clock. Starting in December and "caging" until the end of February, Intramural Basketball, provided the boys with "something to do" on Saturday afternoons.

Among Glenbard's newer clubs, wrestling holds unique qualifications: one has to be physically fit and mentally alert. In preparation for an interscholastic wrestling team to come, Coaches Evans, Kastrinos, and Lazier have had a husky squad of boys eager to learn the rudiments of wrestling. Four nights a week the boys met in the newly authorized wrestling room to condition their bodies and their reflexes. The grapplers showed fine things to come in representing Glenbard in competitive wrestling.

CLASS OFFICERS

Vice-President, Sally Creber; President, Phyllis Greene; Secretary, Tom Johnson.

For three years, the class of 1958 has been progressing toward the ultimate goal of becoming seniors. Many of them have become members of G-Club, Smoking Council, Latin Club, Kits and Skits, and other organizations exclusive to upperclassmen. With much success, they experimented with acting when they presented the Junior Class Play. Scholastically, the juniors received high acclaim in the Extemporaneous Speech Contest, and several were honored by being chosen to Thespians, Masque and Gavel, and Quill and Scroll.

CLASS OFFICERS

President, Dick Cassidy; Secretary, Carole Stone; Vice-President, Hal Johnson.

The upper-underclassmen were really on the ball this past year. They are showing promise in the field of sports and are industriously preparing for the varsity teams. Several of the members of the class became active in Student Council and held major offices in large clubs. They also began working on the school publications, Pinnacle and Glen Bard. The "wise fools" are probably the least talked about class in high school. Nevertheless, the energetic Class of 1959 has made quite a name for itself.

The class of '60 managed to survive the name-calling and practical joking which goes along with being a greenhorn at Glenbard. Elevator passes and stage whispers such as "We're being invaded!" are not uncommon events in a freshie's life. Vast numbers joined the many clubs available to them, participated in band and chorus programs, and gave support to their teams. They were also well represented on the Honor Roll.

Dear Jane,

Well, we finally made it! I can hardly believe we are out of high school. When I think back today do I recall the memories? Remember all the P.G. parties at Joyce's house. What a riot. Those jam sessions at Galie's were really something. Remember Washington paopy. I love your "Higg" & I'll never forget the Henry Hudson Hotel & that cute waiter or that man in the window. Women & those Irish guys cute?! Remember all the fun we had at those drive-ins, sneaking in and all. I bet sure was neat all those times ditching!! If Buster & Me Lean every knew!! We've had our fun, but we've sure had our troubles too.

Jane, I'm so glad all of us could stay together this year. I sure hope you and Bob have a ball in college. Don't forget to drop me a line now & then just to let me know how you doing. Jane, you don't know how much your friendship has meant to me this last year. When I've really needed a friend, I could always depend upon you. Thanks for the advice you've given me, boy did I ever need it. I know you'll really be a success in college cause that's the kind of person you are. I sure hope your friendship with Bob continues for a long, long time. Best of luck to the sweetest, cutest, & most loyal friend a person could want. I sure hope all your dreams come true because you deserve a lot!! Let's really have a ball this summer, cause this must be our last together.

Love always,

Rosie

Jane, (Sister)
I can't begin to tell you how much I value your friendship. Perhaps during the period I lay were a little more than pretend sisters. Our part was so much fun but I can't imagine it being so without you. Actually I don't think the part fit either of us but will just say we were good actresses.
Please always stay the same! She had many good times together and lots of fun talking about Whitty. Also don't forget hair. I sincerely wish you the best of luck in everything you ever do. You're the most industrious worker and a wonderful friend. Again thanks for all the fun.
Love,
Jan. Facher (Sister Maude)

Dear Jane,

Today we have shared a great honor - BEST
THESPIANS. Congratulations to you.

May God walk with you on the road through life.

Cliff Winter

Dear Jane,

I don't know where to begin
we've had so many good times together. Remember French III and the beauty shop sessions
you made a wonderful French
Club president. Mademoiselle
Snuff was such a riot. Quelle pauvre est aujourd'hui! And then there was our ditching 62h period and sitting in the parking lot without any money. I'll never forget Adv. Bio. and the bones of Sam. Did we ever laugh.

The project we did with those pigs was really good. Mr. K.
really caused us some trouble.
I started Rock - when I lost my fags & Karen rescued them. We were sneaking around with fags. etc. a wonder we got home alive with Mr. Carr.
flying through stop signs.

The Washington was best of all; Cafe Madison and the many drinks. Remember when you go to New York to visit the beautiful Henry Hudson, equipped with fresh well
boys.

I seriously, Jane is a wonderful four years knowing you.
You'll go for no matter what you do with your fabulous sense of humor. Best wishes at Beloit.
We'll have to get together every summer.

God bless you.

Love,
Carol
